THE CHARLES T. MAIN STUDENT LEADERSHIP AWARD

The Charles T. Main Award was established in 1919 in honor of the 37th President of ASME. In 1971, it was combined with the Arthur L. Williston Medal contest to encourage Student Members and young engineers to become active in public service.

This award recognizes an undergraduate Student Member whose leadership and service qualities have contributed, for a period of more than one year, to the program and operations of a Student Section, to his/her department activities and other related activities.

THE CHARLES T. MAIN STUDENT LEADERSHIP AWARD

First place consists of a gold medal, a certificate, a $3000 honorarium, Second place consists of a silver medal, a certificate, a $2000 honorarium. Both winners will receive a travel expense contribution to attend the award presentation. Runner-up awards may be bestowed upon Charles T. Main candidates who meet the award criteria, each to carry a $500 honorable mention.

THE CHARLES T. MAIN STUDENT LEADERSHIP AWARD

Candidates for the awards will have accomplishments in some, if not all, the categories that follow:
